Proposed Reparations Subcommittee Agenda - Date: August 22, 2023
Time: 730 pm. The meeting will be in person at the Municipality Building

- Reparations Subcommittee Members – Fern, Howard, Anastasia, Arifa, Walter, and Surinder
  - Discuss the expansion of the subcommittee to Include Community Members and others.
- Introduction – A brief outline of our Goals
  - Reparations Progress since 2020
  - Mission Statement
  - What is Reparations?
  - Why are Reparations Necessary?
    - "Virtually Every Institution with some degree of History in America, Be it Public, Be it Private, has a History of Extracting Wealth and Resources out of the African-American Community….Behind all of that Oppression was actually Theft" Ta-Nehisi Coates
    - Plots of the Generational Wealth Gaps
    - Transatlantic Slave Trade, Middle Passage, Domestic Slave Trade, Jim Crow, Relining, etc.
  - CRC Role at the Municipality
    - Historical, Social Justice and Humanity, Ethical Grounds, and Economic
- Legacy, History, and Progress of Reparations in the USA
  - History of the Reparations Movement
    - Federal, State, and Local Levels
- Local (Princeton) Historical Slavery
  - Facts and True Stories about Slavery
  - A Historical Narrative of the Witherspoon-Jackson Community – Shirley Satterfield and NIOT Reparation Task Force
- Moving Forward
  - A Systematic Approach
    - Theoretical Lenses
    - Stakeholders and Subcommittees
- Proposed Reparations Draft Resolution for the Mayor and Council
  - Review CRC Draft Resolution: A Resolution Establishing the Municipality of Princeton's Reparations Committee Dedicated to Studying and Advancing Local Reparations Recommendations and Promoting Truth and Reconciliation
  - Princeton Municipality Resolutions 22-412 in support of NJ Legislature - Bill A938/S386
- List of Questions
  - Pros and Cons of Reparations
  - What do Reparations Mean to you?
  - How and Who needs to be involved?
  - Specific Questions Relevant to Princeton
- Miscellaneous
  Please review the proposed agenda and provide comments and feedback. Thank you, Surinder