Princeton Selects Rhodalynn Jones as Human Services Director

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 18, 2021

PRINCETON, NJ – Princeton is pleased to announce that Rhodalynn Jones has been selected as the new Human Services Director. The official start date is scheduled for Tuesday, September 7, 2021.

Jones has served as Outreach Coordinator within Corner House since October 6, 2014, first on a full-time basis and then on a part-time basis after accepting a full-time position with New Jersey Department of Health, Division of HIV, STD & TB Services. Prior to becoming the Outreach Coordinator, she worked with Homefront as a program assistant for homelessness prevention.

Jones succeeds former Human Services Director Melissa Urias, who resigned effective July 13, 2021 after five years of service.

Jones graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Psychology, Social Work & Health Administration from Rider University, and later earned a Master's degree in Public Health from Liberty University.
